Eugene Lang

Eugene Lang has become one of America's best known philanthropists. He is engaged in the difficult task of bettering the quality of inner-city public education. Mr. Lang's offer to pay for a college education for the entire graduating class of 61 at P.S. 121, the school he attended in Harlem, has inspired dozens of other individuals throughout the country to do the same. Today, the "I Have A Dream" Foundation is active in 32 American cities across 21 states. As a result, more than 8,000 inner-city children from economically disadvantaged communities will have the opportunity to attend college. Eugene Lang is also the son and brother of Hunter alumnae and has funded the Ida Lang Recital Hall for the Hunter College Music Department, and the Faculty Development Program for Hunter faculty in their pre-tenure years. Moreover, this year, he is supporting a new program which will support joint student/faculty research projects at Hunter that will lead to the publication of co-authored research findings in scholarly journals.

Robert A. Davila

Robert A. Davila, Assistant Secretary of the Federal Office of Special Education and Rehabilitation Services, holds what experts in special education, rehabilitation and disability consider the most complex position in the field. Fluent in English, Spanish and American Sign Language, Dr. Davila administers an annual budget of approximately $4 billion and is responsible for Federal involvement in programs that affect the nation's 36 million individuals with disabilities. Internationally recognized and honored as a spokesperson on issues affecting the education of deaf and hearing impaired individuals, Dr. Davila received a Master of Science degree in Special Education from Hunter College in 1963, ten years after being awarded a Bachelor of Arts degree in Education of the Hearing Impaired from Gallaudet College (now University). He also earned a PhD in Educational Technology from Syracuse University. He has made service to children and youth with disabilities his lifelong career, both as an educator and an administrator. At Gallaudet University he served simultaneously as a Professor of Education and as Vice President for Pre-College Programs. One of eight children of migrant farmworkers who immigrated to the United States from Mexico, Dr. Davila is the first hearing impaired individual to be elected president of the three major professional organizations in the field of deafness.

Mary Johnson Lowe

Mary Johnson Lowe was appointed by President Jimmy Carter United States District Judge for the Southern District of New York in 1978. One of only ten black federal judges, she received her BA from Hunter College in 1952, an LLB degree from Brooklyn Law School and a Master of Laws degree from Columbia University Law School. Judge Lowe has served on the Criminal Court of the City of New York, and as an Acting Supreme Court Justice assigned to the Central Narcotics Term of the New York County Supreme Court. In 1977, she was elected Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York.

Judge Lowe has taught many trial advocacy courses to experienced attorneys and law students. She has given unstintingly of her time to work with young attorneys in the Office of the New York County District Attorney, helping them become more skillful litigators. On the bench, she leaves justice with compassion and has made landmark decisions. Judge Lowe was the first in New York State to rule that brain death rather than cardiac arrest constitutes the legal definition of death, thus making it possible to transplant vital organs and save lives. She ruled that the City of New York had acted unconstitutionally in requiring women employees to pay more into the City's pension system than men. She also ruled that the City's system of overnight placements of foster children was unconstitutional, requiring the City to improve the care given to foster children. And, as a result of her 1984 decision, homeless individuals throughout New York State are now eligible to vote.

Academic Heraldry

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn by participants in these exercises are patterned after the attire of monks in the Middle Ages. Those who have earned the bachelor's degree wear a gown with a semistiff yoke, long pleated front, intricate shirring across the shoulders and back and long, pointed sleeves. The holder of the master's degree wears a similar gown, but the sleeve is square and closed at the end with the wearer's forearm coming through a slit near the elbow. Those possessing the doctor's degree wear gowns having broad velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars on the full, round, open sleeves. This velvet trimming may be either black or the color of the field of learning represented by the degree.

The hoods, over the shoulders and down the backs of the faculty, reveal the degrees and institutions of the wearers. The velvet binding or edging is distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains. The lining of the hood, in silk, gives the color or colors of the institution granting the degree. The shortest hood is the bachelor's; the longest and the broadest is the doctor's; and the master's is midway between these in size. There is much duplication in the colors of the colleges; therefore, they will be left unidentified. However, there is a standard color for the subjects. The most common including those used at Hunter College are:

Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Business	Sapphire Blue
Education	Light Blue
Engineering	Orange
Health Sciences	Kelly Green
Law	Purple
Medicine	Green
Nursing	Apricot
Pharmacy	Olive
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Sciences & Mathematics	Golden Yellow
Social Sciences	Dark Blue
Social Work	Citron
Theology	Scarlet

The Ceremony

The Mace carried by the Grand Marshall, who leads the Processional and Recessional, was presented to the College by the Alumni Association at the ceremony marking the Centennial of Hunter College in 1970. It is used each year at Commencement and the Honors Convocation.

The walking stick carried by Provost Strumingher belonged to Thomas Hunter and bears the following inscription on its gold head: "To Prof. Thomas Hunter, Ph.D -- A former pupil's tribute of respect. 1879."
