JEFF GREENFIELD – Commencement Speaker

Jeff Greenfield, acclaimed political, media and culture reporter, returned to CBS News as senior political correspondent in May 2007. He contributes to the CBS Evening News with Katie Couric, The Early Show, CBS News Sunday Morning and other CBS News broadcasts, as well as CBSNews.com.

Greenfield had been senior analyst for CNN since 1998. During that time, he served as its lead analyst for coverage of the primaries, conventions, presidential debates and election nights, as well as presidential funerals and Supreme Court confirmation hearings. Greenfield has also reported on the media, culture and trends for the cable channel.

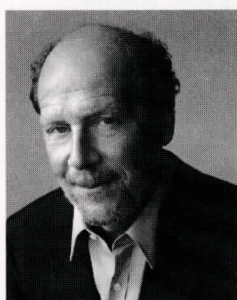

While Greenfield's reporting has taken him to datelines around the world from South Africa to Japan to Europe, he is known principally for his coverage of domestic politics and media. He has served as a floor reporter or anchor booth analyst for every national convention since 1988. Greenfield has twice been named to TV Guide's All-Star team as best political commentator and was cited by the Washington Journalism Review as "the best in the business" for his media analysis. Before joining CNN, Greenfield was political and media analyst for ABC News (1983-97), appearing primarily on "Nightline" and delivering weekly commentaries for "World News Sunday."

Previously, he was the media commentator for CBS News (1979-83). Greenfield has also appeared on William F. Buckley's "Firing Line" and PBS's "We Interrupt This Week." He is currently the anchor of PBS's "CEO Exchange," a limited-run series now in its fifth season.

Greenfield is the recipient of three Emmy Awards, two for his reporting from South Africa and one for a profile of Ross Perot.

His work has appeared in many publications, including The New York Times Magazine, Harper's and National Lampoon. Greenfield is the author or co-author of 11 books. His first novel, The People's Choice, was a national bestseller and was named by The New York Times Book Review as one of the notable books of the year. His most recent book was Oh, Waiter, One Order of Crow, an insider's account of the contested 2000 presidential election.

Greenfield graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1964, where he was editor-in-chief of the Daily Cardinal, and from Yale Law School in 1967, where he was a Note and Comment editor of the Yale Law Journal.

LEW FRANKFORT – Recipient of Doctorate of Humane Letters

When Lew Frankfort joined Coach, Inc., in 1979 as vice president of new business development, the company's sales were just $6 million. Over the last 27 years, Frankfort, now chairman and chief executive officer, has transformed Coach from a cottage-industry manufacturer of leather goods into a premier American accessories brand. As of March 2007, under Frankfort's stewardship, Coach's annual sales reached nearly $2.5 billion.

In his nearly three decades at the company, Frankfort has continued to build upon Coach's strengths by broadening product offerings, modernizing stores, accelerating retail expansion, improving operational efficiency and growing the brand's international presence. At the beginning of his career at Coach, Frankfort spearheaded the development of Coach stores and its introduction into international markets. In 1985, Coach was acquired by Sara Lee Corporation and he was appointed president of Coach. In 1995, he was named chairman and CEO. In 2000, he oversaw Coach's transition to a publicly traded company listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

In 2005, 2006, and 2007, Frankfort was selected as one of the "Most Respected CEO's" in Barron's. For the last two years, he has led Coach to be one of the Top Performers in the "Business Week Fifty," holding the number 2 spot in 2007. In 2004, Frankfort was voted by Institutional Investor Magazine as the top CEO in the sector of retailing/specialty stores. In 2005, 2006 and 2007, the same publication named him the top CEO in apparel, footwear and textiles.

Prior to his corporate career, Frankfort held various positions in the public sector, spending ten years in New York City government. For three of those years, he served as commissioner of the Agency for Child Development and helped restore New York's Head Start and day care programs during the fiscal crisis of the mid-1970s.

Frankfort holds a bachelor of arts degree from Hunter, where he is chair of the Visioning Cabinet. He earned an MBA in marketing from Columbia University, where he is a member of the Board of Overseers of its Business School. Frankfort also serves on the Board of Directors of Teach for America, a public-private partnership aimed at eliminating educational inequity in America.

To the Graduates of the Class of Spring 2007:

Congratulations on your graduation! Welcome to the Alumni Association of Hunter College! The Alumni Association is happy to recognize your membership in our organization of over 80,000 Hunter College graduates. Plan now to become part of our ever-growing network of Hunter alumni. Please resolve to communicate regularly by telephone, e-mail, or regular mail.

You will receive notices to join in the activities of the Alumni Association. These will include invitations to interesting meetings and lectures throughout the year, as well as luncheons and reunion receptions to help you continue your connections with classmates and friends. If you relocate to another part of the country, we hope you will join and attend regional alumni chapter events in other cities and states. Additionally, we have a thriving Alumni Book Club and an Alumni Creative Writing Workshop; these groups meet regularly at the College. You will also be immediately eligible to serve on Alumni Association committees and to stand for election to the Alumni Association Board of Directors.

At Hunter is a publication with news of alumni activities and events of interest to us. It is sent from the College to alumni at least three times annually. Please inform us of important events in your life and career. Particularly, please let us know of any change of name or address. Please contact us at the Alumni Office: 695 Park Avenue, Room 1314 East Building, New York, NY 10021 – phone: 212/772-4087 – e-mail: alumnirelations@hunter.cuny.edu

Finally, you should obtain an alumni card at your earliest convenience. You will need it to gain access to on-campus services available to Hunter alumni. New graduates should bring proof of graduation (official transcript or diploma) and a photo ID (driver's license, etc.) to the Alumni Office (Room 1314 East Building). Your entry in the Alumni Database will then be confirmed; this will enable you to go immediately to the Welcome Center (First Floor North Building) to receive your new Hunter College Alumni Photo Identification Card.

With your Alumni Card you will have access to:

The Hunter College Library Facilities: includes the Main Library on East 68th Street, the Health Professions Library on East 25th Street, and the School of Social Work Library on East 79th Street.

Recreational Facilities: includes the swimming pool, exercise facilities, etc. These are also open to your family and other guests for a fee. Please be sure to complete the required medical forms available in the Medical Office in the North Building. Call 212/772-4912 for details.

Instructional Computer Services: 212/650-3272

Chanin Language Center: 212/772-5700

Career Development Services: 212/772-4850

10% Discount at Hunter College Bookstore: 212/650-3970

Again, I am happy to extend highest praise and commendation to each of you for receiving your degree from Hunter College, one of the most respected institutions of public higher education in this country. All best wishes for your future success!

Academic Heraldry

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn by participants in these exercises are patterned after the attire of monks in the Middle Ages. Those who have earned the bachelor's degree wear a gown with a semistiff yoke, long pleated front, intricate shirring across the shoulders and back and long, pointed sleeves. The holder of the master's degree wears a similar gown, but the sleeve is square and closed at the end with the wearer's forearm coming through a slit near the elbow. Those possessing the doctor's degree wear gowns having broad velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars on the full, round, open sleeves. This velvet trimming may be either black or the color of the field of learning represented by the degree.

The hoods, over the shoulders and down the backs of the faculty, reveal the degrees and institutions of the wearers. The velvet binding or edging is distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains. The lining of the hood, in silk, gives the color or colors of the institution granting the degree. The shortest hood is the bachelor's; the longest and the broadest is the doctor's; and the master's is midway between these in size. There is much duplication in the colors of the colleges; therefore, they will be left unidentified. However, there is a standard color for the subjects. The most common, including those used at Hunter College, are:

Arts, Letters, Humanities .....	White
Business .....	Sapphire Blue
Education .....	Light Blue
Engineering .....	Orange
Health Sciences .....	Kelly Green
Law .....	Purple
Medicine .....	Green
Nursing .....	Apricot
Pharmacy .....	Olive
Philosophy .....	Dark Blue
Sciences and Mathematics .....	Golden Yellow
Social Sciences .....	Dark Blue
Social Work .....	Citron
Theology .....	Scarlet

Historical Notes

The Mace carried by the Grand Marshall, who leads the Processional and Recessional, was presented to the College by the Alumni Association at the ceremony marking the Centennial of Hunter College in 1970. It is used each year at Commencement and the Honors Convocation.
