Well may he sing, the careless bird,
Whose carol o'er the field is heard.
The day is chill and dark to see;
The rain falls drearily.
The bough beneath him rocks and swings,
But still he bravely, blithely sings,
For he has wings.

O, heart of mine, thou too canst be,
Tho' joy is dying, sorrow-free.
What need to reck the gathering night.
Trust thou to Fancy's pinion light;
And when the sullen storm is nigh,
Love can find out a sunny sky;
For wings have I.

- IX. AWARD OF DIPLOMAS President Hunter

X. COLLEGE SONG—"The Good Ship Alma Mater"

G. Mangold

Words by Helen Gray Cone, Class of '76

The good ship Alma Mater rides at anchor in the bay,
With all her colors flying in the summer wind to-day;
For years she stoutly bore us, but now the ocean's past,
And in the hoped-for haven she has landed us at last.

O good ship Alma Mater, we bid farewell to thee,
Stand stately in the harbor, ride queen-like on the sea.
May never storm come nigh thee, may never tempest make
Thy mighty masts to quiver, thine oaken sides to shake.

O you who sailed before us in the good ship long ago
We follow'd where you led us, stars above and sea below;
You led us like a beacon that lit the seething foam,
You led us like the glitter of a star that pointed home.

O you who shall come after, we give you all God-speed,
Stand by the Alma Mater and serve her at her need;
Till you, too, pass the billows that hold you from the shore,
Till you, too, ride at anchor, and plough the waves no more.

O good ship Alma Mater, a long farewell at last,
We're hopeful for the future, we're grateful for the past,
Sail on thro' sunny waters; with more than lips can tell
Of sorrow at our parting, we speak the last farewell.
