G. Mangold

Words by Helen Gray Cone, Class of '76

The good ship Alma Mater rides at anchor in the bay,
With all her colors flying in the summer wind to-day;
For years she stoutly bore us, but now the ocean's past,
And in the hoped-for haven she has landed us at last.

O good ship Alma Mater, we bid farewell to thee,
Stand stately in the harbor, ride queen-like on the sea.
May never storm come nigh thee, may never tempest make
Thy mighty masts to quiver, thine oaken sides to shake.

O you who sailed before us in the good ship long ago —
We follow'd where you led us, stars above and sea below;
You led us like a beacon that lit the seething foam,
You led us like the glitter of a star that pointed home.

O you who shall come after, we give you all God-speed,
Stand by the Alma Mater and serve her at her need;
Till you, too, pass the billows that hold you from the shore,
Till you, too, ride at anchor, and plough the waves no more.

O good ship Alma Mater, a long farewell at last,
We're hopeful for the future, we're grateful for the past,
Sail on thro' sunny waters; with more than lips can tell
Of sorrow at our parting, we speak the last farewell.
