Rassin Wins Big Over Nimke First V.P. Office Contested

Priscilla Rassin, new president of PASC

Priscilla Rassin has won the race for President of Park Avenue Student Council. Miss Rassin beat her opponent, Hildegarde Nimke, by 670 votes. The final count for President, was Rassin—652; Nimke—292; abstain 153.

In other races for PASC offices, Fran Lazar defeated Andy Harte for the 2nd V.P. post by 115 votes, 525-410 with 209 abstentions. In the race for Secretary Barbara Sacks defeated Carol Margalith by a slim 72 votes, 412-340 with 392 abstentions. In the closest race among the candidates, Judy Fraenkel, running on the Academic Freedom Party ticket, defeated Sue Feldman, the Treasurer's post. Miss Fraenkel won by only eight votes, 451-443 with 250 abstentions. The office of 1st V.P. is being held in abeyance.

It seems that charges have been brought against one of the candidates for the office of 1st V.P., and until the Judicial Board can meet to discuss the case on Wednesday night, the results will not be announced. Candidates for the office are Linda Rossi, former Treasurer of Student Council; Steve Levy, President of Sigma Alpha Mu fraternity; Erin McDonnell, President of the Class of June '68; and Linda Arkow, who is running along with Judy Fraenkel on the Academic Freedom Party. Joni Cincotta, Chairwoman of the Elections Committee was visibly upset by this turn of events. "A thing like this could damage anyone's future academic career," she said. "If this gets onto a record, forget about Graduate School."

In other races, Edith Ravitch, running unopposed for the office of National Student Association Coordinator won easily-getting 604 Yes votes, 82 No votes, and 458 abstentions. Both Rose Gordon and Fran Lazar were elected to the NSA Congress.

Linda Cohen, running unopposed for office of the President of the Class of January '67 received 25 Yes votes, three No votes, and nine abstentions.

Edith Klindworth defeated Laurel Heyman 164 votes to 95 votes with 27 abstentions. Maria Ann Messina received 215 as against nine No votes and 62 abstentions. Beatrice Reifield, also running unopposed, received 214 Yes votes, 10 No votes and 62 abstentions.

Sue Ann Grodman received 47 Yes votes, 3 No votes and 19 abstentions in her bid for the Presidency of January '68. Her running mate, Janice Eisenberg, candidate for V.P. received 39

Yes votes, 15 No votes and 15 abstentions.

Jerry Tepplitz beat Bernard Berger and Anne McCauley 219 with only 30 abstentions, for the President of the Class of June '68 V.P. Janet Sadowsky polled 519 Yes votes, 34 No votes, and 134 abstentions. Richard Sanders won handily as the Class' secretary. Ben Wasserman, Shirley Gretzer and Penny Saperstein won the Presidency. Vice Presidency and Secretary-Treasurer jobs while running unopposed. Tallies were not posted for the last 4 candidates.
