PART OF MOBILE UNIT SENT BY HUNTER COLLEGE TO ENGLAND

A GIFT TO GREECE

The following individuals, all members of the Hunter College Classics Department, have constituted themselves a committee to sponsor a drive for aid to Greece: Professor E. Adelaide Hahn, Professor Harry L. Levy, Dr. Adelaide D. Simpson, Dr. Meriwether Stuart, of the Faculty; Dr. Thelma B. De Graff and Mrs. Winifred Ruter Merkel, of the Evening Session; Miss Florence J. Bloch, of the Administrative Staff; and Miss Helen Philindras, of the Student Body. Contributions are invited from all units of the College, of course including the Associate Alumnae, which is represented on the committee by Misses Hahn and Bloch.

The committee will meet directly after the holidays. Its choice of a Treasurer, and of a form of relief, will be announced in the February News. But Alumnae who wish to contribute are begged not to wait till then. They are assured that only a worthy and efficient group will be selected for support; and for the time being, checks may be made out to the undersigned. The need is terribly pressing, and it is indeed true that he gives twice who gives quickly.

It seems appropriate that in this enterprise the lead is taken by a group of classicists, who have a particular sympathy for that phenomenal little land where the humanities as we know them were born, and then were saved for us against overwhelming invading hordes 24 centuries ago. But one need not be a Hellenist to thrill at the thought of any brave little people fighting to save their homes and their souls against aggression and oppression. For that, it is enough to be an American! To all Americans we address our plea.

Hunter College.

E. ADELAIDE HAHN.

ALUMNAE BREAKFAST

The annual Alumnae Breakfast is coming nearer as the calendar pages are torn off. Be sure to mark February 15, 1941, as an important engagement at the Hotel Astor at 12:30 P. M.

A most interesting program has been arranged for this occasion with several outstanding speakers. Mme. Tamara Daykarhanova, Head of the Tamara Daykarhanova School of the Stage, at one time leading actress in the Moscow Theater and well known for having played the leading role in the Chauve Souris throughout Europe, will speak on "A Phase of the Stage". Mrs. Ordway Tead, Dean of Finch Junior College, and Jean Starr Untermeyer, poet, will also address us.

We are happy to have the pleasure of hearing one of our own Hunter College students, Miss Arline Carmen, as soloist. She is the winner of the Samuel Schotneroff Scholarship and has appeared on the N.B.C. network.

This will be a very joyous occasion, and I do hope you will make every effort to attend. Tickets $2.50. Mail reservations to Mrs. J. A. Crotty, 200 West 90th St., telephone Schuyler 4-6274.

GENEVIEVE BURKE CROTTY, Chairman.
