

---

Professor Helen L. Young, Chairman of the History Department, died on July 12, at the age of sixty-four, at St. Luke's Hospital. Professor Young had announced her retirement at the end of last semester, but had intended to continue her duties through the Summer Session.

Born in Marion, New York, Professor Young was graduated from Cornell University in 1900, and obtained her Ph.D. from Yale University in 1910. She began teaching at Hunter in the same year, and in 1918 was promoted to Associate Professor. In 1939 Dr. Young was elected to the Chairmanship of the Department.

Dr. Young made many trips to Europe and studied in France for a year. She was a contributor to a five-volume history of the development of Manhattan Island, and was a member of the American Historical Society and the Foreign Policy Association. She also published several book reports on French history in the New York Herald Tribune and the Social Science Abstracts.

She was buried in East Palmyra, where she had planned to live after her retirement.

---