

THE ALUMNÆ NEWS

Published Monthly by the Associate Alumnae of Hunter College of the City of New York
(Entered at the New Rochelle Post Office at the pound rate of postage)

NEW ROCHELLE, FEBRUARY, 1920

No. 3

HELP TO BUILD ALUMNÆ HALL

THE HEART OF IT.

Everybody knows what the life of a treasurer is, but this is what our Treasurer says: "If love could build Alumnae Hall, it would have been built many times over. Money and checks are given 'lovingly.' Love for Hunter radiates from every letter that comes to me."

Love will build Alumnae Hall. Have you sent your "love" to the Treasurer?

J. S. S. D.

GRADUATE GIFT.

As we go to press on the morning of January 10, the treasurer reports:

Cash on hand$21,188.30
Pledges 10,477.65

Total$31,665.95

Mr. Marshall has pledged 10 per cent. of what we collect.

10% of $150,000 (our goal) is $15,000.00
10% of $31,665.95 is 3,166.59

Difference is$11,833.41

Thirty-six days in which to help earn the difference!

SEND CHECK, MADE PAYABLE TO GRADUATE GIFT FUND, TO

MRS. HARRY ARNOLD DAY,
HUNTER COLLEGE,
PARK AVENUE AT 68th ST.

GIVE AND GIVE AGAIN.

Victory Liberty Loan Bonds are not exempt, in any amount, from federal and state taxes. If they are given to your Alumnae Association, you may deduct that amount from your income and the Alumnae will not have to pay any tax on them. They will add 4¾ per cent. to your gift fund. Send in your Victory Loan Bonds. Seven received this week. Keep them coming.

How does your gift to Alumnae Hall compare with the price you pay for your gowns, your furs, your theatre bills? Does it equal the price of your best gown? If it does not, is it proportionate? Does it equal the cost of one year's tuition at a private school for your child? Would that be too large a gift for your Jubilee?

Three sisters, self supporting, each pledged $1,000. Only one other $1,000 gift heard from.

Oh, Hunter girls, change that!

Three sisters, in one family, each sent $25, saying, "This represents a very small part of what we feel Hunter College did for us."

So many $25 gifts have come from persons of small means and, in most cases, many home responsibilities.

$100 from a graduate in Washington State.

$50 from a graduate in Cuba.

$50 from a minister's wife in a small suburban town.

Checks and loving messages from California, Arizona, New Mexico, Missouri, Canada, Wisconsin, and many distant points. These graduates may never have the privilege of using Alumnae Hall. Nearby graduates, their gifts will benefit you most. Speed up and give again!

J. W. D.

Who looks around for phrases new
In which to tell our story true,
And get it in the paper, too?—
Publicity.

Who hunts for copy ev'rywhere,
'And writes it up, with greatest care,
And sends out reams where'er she dare?—
Publicity.

Whose thought by day and dream by night
Is how to get in—"Hunter"—right
In columns where 'twill meet your sight?—
Publicity.

L. P.

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the Hunter Girls are singing
And their high hope gleams;
There's a bright new day a-coming
When my dreams shall come true:
It's the day when I'll be marching to
That longed-for Hall with you.

Montvale.

TRIOLET.

Our lines are set: we're bound to get
A big alumnae haul.
That's why, in loyal violet,
Our lines are set. We're bound to get
Response from all we've ever met.
In pleasant places all
Our lines are set: we're bound to get
A big Alumnae Hall. E. A. H.

SUGGESTIONS FOR COSTUMES, BY YEARS.

JUST FOR FUN.

Join your group in costume. Two prizes are being offered, one for the class having largest number in costume, and one for class having prettiest costumes. Find yourself in the list below, and come prepared! It needn't be elaborate. A simple costume made of paper or cheap muslin and worn over your own dress will answer the purpose and carry out the spirit.

Folly, in cap and bells, will be our leader for the day, and every one must follow. Don't be dignified—dress up. Just for Fun.

LABEL YOURSELF.

It is suggested that you provide a card at least one inch by four with your name and year printed legibly upon it, and wear it all day, to aid people in remembering you. Don't use your visiting card. Let it be quite clear to read a yard away. Use the name you were known by in college, even if you have changed it since then.

This will help those who know they know you, but can't quite place you. It will surprise you how many you will meet whose names you can't recall.

- 1870-75—White scarf with wistaria.
"6 in 1 group"
1876—Red White and Blue.
1877—Lavender and White.
1878—Distinctive Costumes.
1879—Colonial.
1880—Puritan.
1881—Housemaid with mop.
1882—No class.
1883—Harem Veils, Peek-a-boo.
1884—Yellow domino and dunce cap.
1885—Ivy costume.
1886—Japanese costume.
1887—Red Cross costume.
1888—The Blizzard.
1889—Cooks.
1890—Blue and Gold.
1891—Blue smock and tam.
1892—Witch, yellow with black cat, etc.
1893—Valentines.
1894—Flower girls.
1895—Alma Mater, Silver.
1896—Fortune teller.
1897—Columbine.
1898—Lavender arm band with date.
1899—White, with Blue Birds.
1900—Head dress bearing class numerals.
1901—Red smock and tam.
1902—Basket Ball.
1903—Indians, featuring red band and feather.
1904—Rough Rider.
1905—Portia, cap and gown.
1906—French maids.
1907—Little Red Riding Hood.
1908—Summer dress with garden hat.
1909—Savages.
1910—Yellow fairies with wand.
1911—Daisies.
1912—Sunbonnets and aprons.
1913—Green smocks and tams.
1914—Just fourteen.
1915—Hunters.
1916—Canteen.
1917—Farmerette.
1918—Military.
1919—Victory.

Miss Betsey B. Davis,
Montvale, Bergen Co., N. J.
Prof. Helen Gray Cone, Hunter College.
Mrs. Frank E. Wise, 236 W. 101st St.
Mrs. Gibson, 115 W. 77th St.

Miss Huebner, 345 W. 121st St.

Mrs. Hartman, 43 Caryl Ave., Yonkers.

Mrs. Popper, 106 Central Park West.

Mrs. Highman, 34 W. 71st St.
Miss Wilhelmina Oetjén, 421 E. 52nd St.

Mrs. Dickinson, 480 Central Park West.

Miss Heidenis, 10 East 130th St.

Miss Marie Gallagher, 28 Mt. Morris Pk W
Miss E. Adelaide Hahn, 552 E. 87th St.

Miss Edna Maryson, 250 E. Broadway.
Miss Speier, 3810 Broadway.