

THE GOLDEN CLASS OF 1899

Nor rain, nor snow, nor sleet, nor ice, could prevent six valiant Alumnae from coming to the tea planned for their Class of 1899 at Roosevelt House, on Friday, February 4th. And it developed into a delightful tête-à-tête of "I remember, I remember." The six who put in an appearance were: Miss Leonora Ehrenberg, Mrs. Regina Thoesen Keil (President of the Class), Mrs. Annarene Maxwell, Miss Josephine Moses, Mrs. Everett Murgatroyd, Miss Martha Roussel. A delightful piece composed by Miss Moses was read:

We're the end-of-the-century Girls,
The very high-pompadoured Girls,
With high-collared dresses and smoothed-back tresses,
The high-buttoned shoes young Girls.
We're the very long dresses young Girls,
The never-show ankles young Girls.
When we go for a swim we must look very trim
In our bloomers, skirts, and stockings, Girls.
We're Dr. Hunter's and Miss Woods' young Girls.
We're Aubert and Keller young Girls.
We learn about bones and distinguishing tones,
Under Wilson and Mangold, Girls.
We're "never-must-run" young Girls.
We're "march-into-chapel" young Girls.
We must never be late for work or for date.
We're "fifteen-minute-margin" young Girls.
Now this to our young sisters, Girls:
The world's moved with so many twirls.
Since we were in College againing our knowledge,
But we still love our memories, Girls.

THE SILVER CLASS OF 1924

The Class of June 1924 celebrated its 25th Anniversary at the College Birthday Luncheon held on February 12th. After holding two class reunions this season we can proudly report an attendance of fifty-five of our members at the Annual Luncheon. Furthermore, the gift of the class to the College was the sum of $1,000.00.

The presentation was beautifully made by our Class President, the ever-popular and dearly beloved Katherine Meyer Graham. In a most original fashion, she narrated the events of twenty-five years in delightful rhyme. We were truly thrilled with our spokesman.

It was particularly exciting to the fifty-five girls of June '24 to hear the invocation delivered by the eminent Rabbi Louis Newman. It took us back to the highlight of our College days—Commencement—at which time we listened to his invocation and received his blessings, as we embarked upon our careers in the world.

The February 12th function was indeed a memorable one for us—the Silver Anniversary Class! We were hailed by the entire assemblage, and experienced a new kinship for one another as well as for our beloved College.

We look forward to our next reunion in the fall. Watch for the date and do come—one and all—members of June '24.

THE CLASS OF 1904

The Class of 1904 will hold their Reunion Luncheon at the Hunter College Commons on Saturday, May 7th. An interesting program is being arranged. Further details will appear in the next issue of our ALUMNAE NEWS.

Congratulations to the Faculty Wives Club of City College. They have just selected our Mrs. Owen A. Haley (Margaret M. Chambers) as President of their Club. In selecting Mrs. Haley they have certainly secured "The Best".

THE CLASS OF 1927

On a Monday night, January 17, our second executive council meeting took place at Rhoda Zelenko's home in the Bronx.

In the midst of irrepressible hilarity that persisted even after the meeting was called to order, we managed to discuss and accept some items of the agenda, including plans for our class luncheon at the Fifth Avenue Hotel at 1 P.M. on Saturday, May 7, in a room with a piano. The menu is very promising. The "Shopping" committee consisted of Gus T. Wollheim, Martha F. Blau, and Rhoda G. Zelenko.

The nominating committee, consisting of Daisy Cloux, Martha G. Hoffman, Isabel McNabb, Marion Clark, and Gus Wollheim, are meeting to prepare a slate for officers, which will be presented at our class meeting, at 8:30 on Tuesday, March 15, at Hunter Alumnae Hall, Room 302. At that meeting members will add their nominations to the slate. Election of officers will take place at the luncheon of May 7. Absentees will have the right to send their ballots through the mail.

We reserved two tables at the Birthday Luncheon.

Repeat performance, please, for May 7. Remember the piano will want some attention and therefore expect us to entertain it.

Come and be surprised at how flattering Father Time has been to our classmates.

LUCY B. PERRY, President
