When this morbid first found me I thought it was a sad day to be a New Yorker however
I realized there was no chance in helping others and changing the world.
The type of love and affection that makes New York a special place.

New York so I send all of my love to the families of the injured and deceased.

We must all remember we are one another.

I still can't believe it. It's like a dream. I am an American, a terrorist.
But now some people look at me as a terrorist. This makes me sad.

"Sikhs" are involved in this war. Never, we Sikhs believe in peace.
Let other people live in peace. My heart goes to the people who lost a loved one.

The people who lost a loved one or friends and even turbin Sikhs.

Because they look like bin Laden, shame on those people.

Will this end? N.Y. will continue to live.

UNITED WE STAND, DIVIDED WE FALL.

I want to help you spell. I am not a great speller.
For New Yorkers. We will get through this.

They tested to see if you could hurt. They hate you because you're strong. They destroyed your beautiful relics because they knew you loved it best. But I know you will show them not to mess with you again.

They know you are grieving, but that you do so out of sorrow. At least you have a heart and you could show how evil they are.

We will get through this, New York. Because your people are strong. We will get through this because I believe we can.

They destroyed a part of you, but you will show them that won't stop you. We will get through this because God is by your side.

You have lost many of your children. But we are by your side. We will get through this because in all there is hope. To change N.Y. with patience and love. We love you New York.
and show we still stand together just as the twins used to stand us. Show that we are who ever they are. Pray for the people who lost their hardest rite now God Bless all.

남북은 하나!!!

... And when it is done, and Afghans, Pakistanis, et al. are under the rubble, will I have the friends I have lost back? No. We will just have more widows and survivors asking “Why?”

War, terror—they are both good for no one.

It’s astounding how New Yorkers as well as other states are coming together as one body to help one another in such a tragedy. All we can do now is pray for more survivors and comfort the ones in pain and sorrow... much condolences for those who have lost a loved one. Love, Esther.
I am very sad because this attack is not fair. Many people died. One innocent person died. I think it is the moment when must share help each other in different ways but we must do it. My country and other countries suffered a terrible attack for ten years and it was worst. I saw how these lives were lost and as a consequence of killers and mad people. I feel sad because I am identified with the United States. I love this country. The United States opened a big opportunity for people of all the world. I never in my life had any or this experience in my country. But this moment I feel so empty. Because my brothers and sisters in the United States are suffering. There are so many tears already. This stops soon.
Eulogy

where are my angels
when my words are shoved down my throat?
I sleep awake
repeating his voice over and over,
trying to remember what he called me.
I sit like dust in a dusty house
my head is echoing from the spiders.
A tear of salt wash
crawls down my cheek,
my eyes have never hurt as much before from rubbing.

I am silent,
mumb,
blinded -

I lost half of me.

He was twenty-three yesterday.

god bless all who lost someone
dear to them.
god bless all of us.

Thoughts

Everyone's freedom is now threatened

VIOLENCE SREEDS VIOLENCE

Violence against the innocent. No one should have to live in fear. Love thy neighbor as thyself.

Everyone is now threatened. Freedom is now in jeopardy.

No one should have to live in fear. Love thy neighbor as thyself.

We should pray for the one's that were less fortunate and not take the law in our own hands but let the government find the terrorists.

In their hearts, they lost families, loved ones, and friends. The world is not the same. Strength is the answer.

God bless you with love, Elizabeth.
First, let's pray for all the victims of World Trade Center. As a human being, we hate terrorists. We all want who did this crime, they will be punished.

In the news, some people attacked on innocent Arabs, who has been living here more than 20 years and they are the citizen of United States. Then why we will be cruel to them?

If Osama bin Laden did this crime, he is not belong to any community.

Muslims don't support Terrorist, Muslims don't support Laden

We all are the part of the modern civilization, our thought should be modern too.

We want peace in Palestine & Israel
We want peace in the whole world

Don't blame any community for any particular person.

[Handwritten note:]
we will need this community to fight along with all the rest of America in order to destroy this evil... even if it means fighting against your former country.
Dear Lord,

Do remember us.

Forgive us.

For all our wrongs as we forgive those who trespass against us.

May those of us who have strength, share that strength with those who need it. They will never be forgotten.

May all those who are suffering, find the love and care they need.

To all the families who have lost loved ones.

May you all find peace and comfort through your memories.

And to all the officers who risked their lives to save others, may they be remembered with love.

In this time of tragedy, our hearts go out to all those affected by this. We stand together through this.

Bless those who suffered and lesser America.

Amidst the flames, we will get through this.

I pray you will bring us all back to peace.

May you all have a good day and night.

With love,

Pamela

THOUGHTS

E US/INDIANS OR GBR ASIANS
JUST AMERICANS

THANK YOU.
I'll pray for you.

PRAY FOR MY FRIEND & SISTER IN CHRIST JENNIFER Y.
HIGH BODY BUILDING 96TH FLOOR BUILDING AND IS STILL HANGING.
This is a sad time for all "Americans". Although "America" in a nation and represent Americans of diverse cultures, America must embrace us all. America, we must realize that. At this time, America is a home for those who were once called enemy and now are our friends.

May God bless America and all of us. Increase the peace for a lost loved one. Love Valsta.
Whoever did this is an animal who does not deserve to live. I wish he/she is caught and punished so that innocent people around him will not suffer because of him and innocent people in this great nation will not suffer in his hands and in the hands of monsters like him again.

I also hope that people draw a line between the killers who did this and the rest of the muslim or arab community. We all grieve. We are all hurt. We are all saddened. This has nothing to do with Islam. Islam condemns the killing of innocent people. Peace.

Please do not offend our animal friends—animals do not behave like this.

"What the world needs now is LOVE, sweet Love"

This happened not because we are vulnerable but because we are strong enough to handle and overcome!!

This world needs to realize that we are all children of a supreme superior being: whether it be God, Allah, Jesus Christ, etc. Human life does not belong in the hands of any one else to take away. Life was given to enjoy, respect, and love each other. What is NOT THE ANSWER is PEACE.

We want Peace of Palestine of Israel.
God bless the USA!

To all who perished without cause on 9/11/01, may the world be your pillow. God bless all of those families who lost a loved one. May God watch over you.

Those who are responsible for this tragedy will get what they deserve. Never forget 9/11!!

Let's not point a finger yet. But pray for the dead, and those who are missing. Thank to those who volunteer and donate.

[Peace Symbol]
As the night came to a close, I knew that I and everyone else would never look at things the way we always looked at them. I knew that my emotions, my choked up, empty body, my aching heart and watery eyes were what everyone was experiencing and feeling, and attempting to overcome. No matter how hard I tried, the thought still remained. An immense amount of fear is built up in me that I cannot close my eyes, because I do not know what to expect and what comes in the next day. This day brought everyone together and it allowed us all to realize how important every second of our lives are. We should not put off until tomorrow what can be done or said today. I imagine all my friends, family, loved ones, the victims, their families, everyone else and how everything changed. Because of the event that occurred on September 11th, 2001, I know that nothing will ever be the same.

I pray that one day, that all this will end and we all will live in peace.

With the words of John Lennon I end this...

"You may say that I'm a dreamer,
But I'm not the only one.
I hope one day you'll join us
And the world will live as one."

May God Bless us All!
