Carlton W. Reeves

United States District Judge Carlton W. Reeves, a native of Yazoo City, Mississippi, assumed office on December 30, 2010. Immediately prior to his nomination by President Barack Obama, Judge Reeves was engaged in the private practice of law with Pigott Reeves Johnson, P.A., a law firm he co-founded in 2001.

President Joe Biden nominated Judge Reeves to be Chair of the United States Sentencing Commission on May 11, 2022. He and six fellow commissioners were confirmed on August 4, 2022. The Commission establishes sentencing policies and practices for the federal courts, including guidelines to be consulted regarding the appropriate form and severity of punishment for offenders convicted of federal crimes. It is also charged with collecting, analyzing, researching, and distributing a broad array of information on federal crime and sentencing issues.

Judge Reeves's career began as law clerk to Justice Reuben V. Anderson of the Mississippi Supreme Court. He also served as staff attorney to the court, and then was an associate with the Phelps Dunbar law firm (1991-95) before serving as Assistant United States Attorney, Chief of the Civil Division for the Southern District of Mississippi (1995-2001).

A 1986 graduate of Jackson State University with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science magna cum laude, and the University of Virginia School of Law (1989), Judge Reeves is a former President of the Magnolia Bar Association and Magnolia Bar Foundation. Judge Reeves is a three-time recipient of the Magnolia Bar's highest honor, the R. Jess Brown Award, and he has also received the Mississippi Bar's Curtis E. Coker Access to Justice Award as well as the Hinds County Pro Bono Award. In 2016, he received the Mississippi State University Department of Political Science & Public Administration and the Pre-Law Society Distinguished Jurist Award (2016). He was elected as a member of the American Law Institute in 2017. In 2019, Judge Reeves received the Thomas Jefferson Foundation Medal in Law, the highest external honor bestowed by the University. Judge Reeves was awarded the 2021 Golden Pen Award by the Legal Writing Institute which recognizes those who make significant contributions in advancing the cause of better legal writing. This recognition, according to the LWI, "rests upon a series of eloquent, forceful, and courageous opinions that unflinchingly examine the enduring legacy of racism, especially in his home state of Mississippi."

Judge Reeves and his late wife, Lora M. Reeves, have one daughter, Chanda.

From the Hunter College Foundation

Congratulations, Class of 2024!

On this Commencement Day, as you enter a new phase of life, your focus will be on the promising paths before you. Whether your plan is to earn a higher degree, start a new job, or choose another exciting option, we know that you will reflect—with great gratitude and pride—on the opportunities your Hunter education provided.

We commend you on getting to this point. We know it hasn't been easy. Many of you held one or more jobs while attending school. Some of you are immigrants, or the children of immigrants, and faced a challenging world—and still you persevered. You have earned your degrees from Hunter College, an institution The Princeton Review calls “the crown jewel of CUNY.” We could not be more proud.

Countless Hunter graduates before you have gone on to accomplish remarkable things, leaving a lasting impact on this city, our country, and the world. Now you will join the ranks of professional, educated, and engaged citizens who have the knowledge and credentials necessary to make positive change.

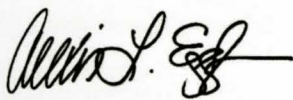

Will you—graduates of the Class of 2024—commit to making your own mark in the world and to living the Hunter motto: Mihi Cura Futuri—The Care of the Future is Mine? You can start today by making a gift to The Annual Fund for Hunter College, paying it forward in support of the next generation of Hunter students.

As is tradition at Hunter, in honor of your class year, we suggest you make a contribution $20.24. However, feel free to select your own donation amount. When our community comes together to support students, every single donation makes a difference towards enhancing their academic experience—no matter the amount.

To contribute online, visit hunter.cuny.edu/AnnualFund. To give by check, please mail your payment to the address below. Make your check payable to “The Hunter College Foundation” and write “The Annual Fund for Hunter” on the memo line.

Again, congratulations to all! And on behalf of the Office of Alumni Relations, we look forward to having you return to Hunter College to network and share wonderful updates with your fellow alumni.

Yours truly,

Alexis L. Eggleton
