SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Normal College of the City of New York was established in 1869 and was the first free municipal college for women in New York City. In 1914, the Normal College was renamed Hunter College in honor of its first president Dr. Thomas Hunter.

The Hunter College Publications Collection consists of bulletins, commencement addresses and programs, college catalogs, newsletters, periodicals, telephone directories, program guides, handbooks, information leaflets, newspaper articles and clippings, student profiles, reports and yearbooks. The collection is arranged alphabetically by title and then chronologically therein.
