I WOULD
I Still can't believe it. It's like a dream. I am an American, but now some people look @ me as a terrorist. This makes me sad & angry (Learn how to spell). This makes me think "SIKHS" are involved in this WAR. Never, we SIKHS live in peace & let other people the people who lost a loved one or friends and even turbin SIKHS who lost their lives just because BIN LADEN. They "look" like PEOPLE SHAME ON THOSE THIS. N.Y WILL CONTINUE &
LIVED R.K.

When this morbid first found me I thought that it was a sad day to be a New Yorker however I realized that there was no shame in helping others and showing the world the type of love + affection
that makes New York New York so I send all of my love
to the families of the injured and deceased
We must all remember
2 stick one another Because

For
All New Yorkers.
We will get through this!

They tested to see if you could hurt.
They Hate you because you're strong They destroyed your beautiful Relics. because they knew you loved it best but I know you will show them Not to mess with you again.

They know You are grieving, but that you do so out of sorrow At least you have a heart and you could show how evil they are

We will get through this, New York because your people are strong we will ~~get~~ through this because I believe we ~~can~~

They destroyed a part of you, but you will show them that won't stop you. ~~they~~ We will get through this because God is by ~~your~~ side

You have lost many of your children. but we are by your side
We will get through this because
In all ~~the~~ there is hope
To change N.Y. with Patience and Love
We Love You New York.

Lets make whatever happen on 9/11/01 make us strong and show we still stand together just as the twins used to stand together just as the still the same and who ever they are. Show that we are someone or someone. Pray for the people who lost these hardest site now G-D BLESS ALL.
남북은 하나!!!

... And when it is done, and Afghans, Pakistanis, et al. are under the rubble, will I have the friends I have lost back? No.
We will just have more widows and survivors asking "Why?"

War, terror - they are both good for no one.

It's astounding to see well as other states are coming together as one body to help one another in such a tragedy.
All we can do now is pray for more survivors and comfort the ones in pain & sorrow ... much condolences for those who have lost a loved one. Esther.

I think so many countries have experienced terror, such as the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. This is a first at perience.

Only the Prince of Peace will be able to bring peace to this world not temporary (like man) but eternal may we all turn our hearts to God and cry out to him to comfort & heal this land. He is our only hope. God bless you

I never in my life had any of this experience in my country. But in this moment I feel so empty. Because in this moment I feel so empty. There are so many stops. So many stops soon. My brothers and Sisters in the United States are year alreadly. I hope

I am very sad, because this attack is not fair. Many people died overall, innocent people, people that never did something bad.

I think is the moment when must share help one each other in different way but we must to do it.

My country, Pers suffered a terrorist attack for ten years and it was horrible. I saw how many lives were lost, as a consequence of killers and mad people.

I feel sad because I am identified with the United States. I love this country. The United States gave a big opportunity to go ahead and God bless The United State and all the world.

Don't fight evil with its instruments. God meant great for those heavenly souls. May God bless you all!

Where are my angels
when my words are shoved down my throat?
I sleep awake repeating his voice over and over, trying to remember what he called me.
I sit like dust in a hunted house my head is echoing from the spiders.
A tear of salt wash crawls down my cheek, my eyes have never hurt as much before from rubbing.

I am silent,
numb,
blinded -

I lost half of me.

He was twenty-three yesterday.

god bless all who lost someone dear to them.
god bless all of us.

No one Should hate a group or a culture as a whole but rather hate those who do evil unto them, as it states in any religion "love your neighbor as thyself".

We should pray for the ones that we're less fortunate and not take the law in our own hands let the Government find the terrorists!!

My hearts goes out to the people that lost their lives & the families who lost their loved ones.
When I saw the WTC building going down, I thought about all those people inside.
War is inside the building. People done, strength is NOT the answer whose is the dignity & together nation should. The magic event. I hope whoever did it, those people overcome this punishment. They get rescuing people helping out all Bless you w/ love, may God

First, Lets pray for all the victims of World Trade center . As a human being, we hate Terrorists. We all want who did this crime, they will be punished.

In the news, some people attacked on Innocent Arabs, who has been living here more than 20 years and they are the citizen of United states. Then why we will be cruel to them?

If Osama bin laden did this crime, he is not belong to any community.

Muslims don't support Terrorist, Muslims don't support Laden

We all are the part of the modern civilization, our thought should be modern too.

We want peace in Palestine& Israel
We want peace in the whole world

Don't blame any community for any particular person.

we will need this community to fight along ~~with~~ with ~~the~~ the rest of America in order to destroy this Evil... even if it means fighting against your former country.

In this time of tragedy, our hearts and prayers go out to those affected by what has happened to our nation. May God Bless those officers, firefighters, and others who risked their lives to save so many, as well as all the families who lost loved ones. We have to stick together as a people and a nation. We will get through this. God Bless America.

May those of us who have strength share that strength to those who need it.
Our blessings and love goes out to all those who are suffering.
They will never be forgotten.

OH LORD!
DO REMEMBER
US.

FORGIVE US
FOR ALL OUR
wrongs as we forgive those who trespass against

This is a good time for all "Americans" to come together and represent just what we (as a nation) must stand for. "America" is supposed to stand for Peace, Love, & Harmony. It is a home for all must pools of cultures. We must realize that America is a home for diverse peoples of races, nationalities, and cultures. We must not hate each other, but embrace our diversities because that is what America stands for. My heart goes out to all who were directly affected by this tragedy, as well as those indirectly affected by this tragedy, as well as those families mourning for a lost loved one. May God bless us all.

Increase the peace.

Whoever did this is an animal who does not deserve to live. I wish he/she is caught and punished so that innocent people around him will not suffer because of him and innocent people in this great nation will not suffer in his hands and in the hands of monsters like him again.

I also hope that people draw a line between the killers who did this and the rest of the muslim or arab community. We all grieve. We are all hurt. we are all saddened. This has nothing to do with Islam. Islam condemns the killing of innocent people. Peace.

"What the world needs now is LOVE, sweet Love"

This happened not because we are vulnerable but because we are strong enough to handle and overcome !!

This world needs to realize that we are all children of a supreme superior being:
whether it be God, Allah, Jesus Christ, ect. Human life does not belong in the hands of any one else to take away. Life was given to enjoy, respect, & love each other. W^AR^K is NOT THE ANSWER PEACE IS:

We want
Palestine

Peace
& Israel.

TO all who perished without cause on 9/11/01 may the world be your pillow. God Bless all of those families who lost a loved one. May God watch over you. Those who are responsible for this tragedy, will get what they deserve. never forget 9/11/01!!

9/14/01

As the night came to a close, I knew that I and everyone else would never look at things the way we always looked at them. I knew that my emotions, my choked up, empty body, my aching heart and watery eyes were what everyone was experiencing and feeling, and attempting to overcome. No matter how hard I tried, the thought still remained. An immense amount of fear is built up in me that I cannot close my eyes, because I do not know what to expect and what comes in the next day. This day brought everyone together and it allowed us all to realize how important every second of our lives are. We should not put off until tomorrow what can be done or said today. I imagine all my friends, family, loved ones, the victims, their families, everyone else and how everything changed. Because of the event that occurred on September 11th, 2001, I know that nothing will ever be the same.

I pray that one day, that all this will end and we all will live in peace.

With the words of John Lennon I end this...

" You may say that I'm a dreamer, But I'm not the only one.
I hope one day you'll join us
And the world will all live as one."

May God Bless Us All!
